

Departmental and Language Examinations - Passing of - by Government Servants.

GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY
POLITICAL AND SERVICES DEPARTMENT
Circular No. EXM-1257-J
Sachivalaya, Bombay, 15th July, 1957

CIRCULAR OF GOVERNMENT

Consequent on the re-organisation of the State of Bombay, Government has had under consideration the question regarding the passing of departmental and language examinations by Government servants, particularly those who belonged to the former States of Madhya Pradesh, Saurashtra, Hyderabad and Kutch. Pending final decision on this question and unification of the respective rules of examinations in conformity with the requirements of the new State of Bombay, Government is pleased to direct as follows:-

(i) The departmental and language examinations which were held by the former States of Madhya Pradesh, Saurashtra, Hyderabad and Kutch for the Government servants of the respective States prior to 1st November 1956, shall continue to be held, for the respective Government servants, according to the rules of those States.

(ii) The examinations will be held by the following agencies:-

(a) by the Bombay Public Service Commission where the examinations were held by the Public Service Commissions of the respective States.

(b) by agencies, other than the Bombay Public Service Commission, where the examinations were held by such agencies. If such an agency does not exist in the new State the examinations will be held by the corresponding agency.

(iii) The examinations will be held at places and on dates which may be notified by the Bombay Public Service Commission or by the other agency as the case may be.

(iv) In cases where the examinations could not be held after the 31st October 1956 according to the original programme, the incidences of penalties such as withholding of increments, postponement of confirmations, etc., if any, prescribed in the respective rules of examinations in respect of the Government servants concerned should be held in abeyance. However, having regard to the postponement of these examinations such cases should be regulated as if the examinations had been held according to the original programme.

2. Secretariat Departments are requested to proceed with the work of integration of the rules of examinations with which they are concerned and to issue final instructions in each case.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Bombay,
